Williams was a workhorse on the mound for the Panthers. Williams allowed no earned runs, 10 hits and two walks while striking out four over seven innings of work.

Curry recorded the win for the Sterling Tigers. He pitched seven shutout innings. He struck out 12, walked two and surrendered two hits.

Williams couldn't get it done on the hill for the Panthers, taking a loss.

The lead stayed with the Sterling Tigers after the first, when they scored two runs on an RBI single by Seibold.

The Panthers give away 19-10 game to the Dale Pirates

The Panthers looked to be in control, up by 10 runs in the first inning, but the Dale Pirates came back to grab a 19-10 win on Thursday.

Mcquain got it done on the bump on the way to a win. He allowed two runs over 3 1/3 innings. Mcquain struck out two, walked none and gave up three hits.

The Dale Pirates easily handled the Panthers pitching as seven hitters combined for 17 hits, 14 RBIs and 14 runs scored.

Kane Martin couldn't get it done on the rubber for the Panthers, taking a loss. He allowed seven runs in 1 1/3 innings, walked two and struck out none.

The top of the first saw the Panthers take an early lead, 10-0. The Panthers caught fire after Cody Williams singled. Then Calin Altman homered, plating Dylan Verser and Williams. The Panthers pushed more runs across when Martin scored on a groundout by Caden Bartlett, Hargus scored on an RBI single by Cache Anglin, Savage, Williams and Anglin scored on a home run by Dylan Verser, and scored on a solo home run by Stanton James.

The Dale Pirates never trailed after scoring eight runs in the second on an error, two two-run blasts, and an RBI single by Chastain.

The Dale Pirates built upon their lead with six runs in the third. A double by Mcquain ignited the offense,, scoring Lagg. That was followed up by Chastain's single, scoring Bigham and Mcquain.

The Panthers lose 4-2 to the Dale Pirates

Nathan Ratcliff went 1-2, but the Panthers still fell to the Dale Pirates 4-2 in five innings on Thursday.

Ratcliff reached base two times in the game for the Panthers. He scored one run and had one RBI. He doubled in the fifth inning.

Hayden Savage took the loss for the Panthers. He lasted just one inning, walked none, struck out none, and allowed four runs.

The top of the first saw the Panthers take an early lead, 1-0. Caden Bartlett started the rally for the Panthers with a single.

The Dale Pirates didn't relinquish the lead after scoring four runs in the third inning when they scored on an RBI double by Lagg and two singles.

After pushing across one run in the top of the fifth, the Panthers faced just a 4-2 deficit. An RBI double by Ratcliff set off the Panthers rally. The Panthers' Cache Anglin flew out to end the ballgame.

Travis Cliff's big day not enough, as the Panthers lose 10-4 to the Sterling Tigers

Spread the Word

The Panthers scattered five hits on Friday, but weren't able to push enough runs across, and lost 10-4 to the Sterling Tigers.

Bay recorded the win for the Sterling Tigers. He allowed three runs over 4 1/3 innings. Bay struck out two, walked none and gave up three hits.

The Sterling Tigers were sparked by Quickle and Bay, who teamed up for four hits and four RBIs.

Stanton James ended up on the wrong side of the pitching decision, charged with the loss. He lasted just five innings, walked five, struck out two, and allowed four runs.

In the bottom of the first, the Panthers grabbed the early lead, 1-0.

The Sterling Tigers went up for good in the third, scoring two runs on an error and a sacrifice fly by Bridges.

Two runs in the bottom of the fifth helped the Panthers close their deficit to 4-3. An RBI single by Hayden Savage and an RBI single by Cody Williams gave the Panthers life. But, Smith got James to end the inning.

The Sterling Tigers piled on six more runs in the top of the sixth. The inning looked promising, as Curry singled, plating Quickle to kick things off.

After pushing across one run in the bottom of the seventh, the Panthers faced just a 10-4 deficit. An error sparked the Panthers' rally. But, Smith got Nathan Ratcliff to ground out to end the game.

The Panthers lost a battle of the bats on Monday at W.L. Jackson Field, falling short in a 12-8 ballgame against Ft. Cobb Mustangs.

Calin Altman did his best to jumpstart the offense for the Panthers, reaching base three times. He singled in the second and third innings.

Kane Martin was in control on the rubber. Ft. Cobb Mustangs managed just one hit off of the the Panthers' pitcher, who allowed no earned runs, walked none and struck out two during his two innings of work.

Stieninetz got the win for Ft. Cobb Mustangs. He allowed one run over three innings. Stieninetz struck out two, walked two and gave up no hits.

Ft. Cobb Mustangs' Robnett, Stieninetz, Lewis and Baca combined for nine hits and nine RBIs.

Mayden Savage was the game's losing pitcher. He lasted just zero innings, walked none, struck out none, and allowed two runs.

The game was never in doubt after the first, as Ft. Cobb Mustangs scored one run on an RBI single by Stieninetz.

Four runs in the bottom of the third helped the Panthers close their deficit to 7-4. An RBI single by Stanton James, an RBI single by Altman, a groundout by Martin, and a passed ball set off the Panthers rally. Finally, Pierce induced an inning-ending ground out from Dylan Hargus.

After pushing across one run in the bottom of the fourth, the Panthers faced just a 7-5 deficit. A hit by pitch triggered the Panthers' comeback. Stieninetz ended the inning by getting Altman to fly out.

Ft. Cobb Mustangs increased its lead with five runs in the seventh. A scored Robnett for the inning's first run.

Three runs in the bottom of the seventh helped the Panthers close their deficit to 11-8. An RBI single by Travis Cliff, a walk by Cache Anolin, and an error fueled the Panthers' comeback. Hines got the last out, as the Panthers' Cody Williams.

No-hitter leads the Panthers past the Union City Tigers 11-1

Thursday was a day Kane Martin will set aside for the scrapbook as Martin threw a no-hitter in the Panthers' 11-1 victory over the Union City Tigers.

No Union City Tigers batter was able to locate Martin's pitches during the game. Martin threw a no-hitter, striking out six batters and walking none while recording his momentous feat. He got Michalicki to fly out for the final out of the game.

Eleven runs in the first three innings helped the Panthers blow out the Union City Tigers. A two-run double by Calin Altman, an RBI single by Martin, an RBI double by Travis Clift, an RBI double by Cache Anglin, an RBI double by Hayden Savage, and a passed ball during the first inning and an RBI double by Altman, a passed ball, an RBI double by Clift, and an RBI single by Savage in the second inning fueled the Panthers' offense early.

The Panthers got their bats going early, scoring seven runs in the first inning to pull ahead of the Union City Tigers.

Le couldn't get it done on the bump for the Union City Tigers, taking a loss. He lasted just zero innings, walked none, struck out none, and allowed three runs.

The Panthers scored four runs of their own in the second.

Vanoss Wolverines took the lead in the seventh inning, and the Panthers was unable to muster a comeback, losing 11-7 in seven innings on Thursday.

The Panthers were led by Dylan Verser's hitting. Dylan Verser went 3-5 and scored two runs. He doubled in the first inning and singled in the third and sixth innings.

Mullinik got the win for Vanoss Wolverines. He allowed two runs over two innings. Mullinik struck out three, walked two and gave up four hits.

Dylan Hargus couldn't get it done on the rubber for the Panthers, taking a loss. He lasted just three innings, walked two, struck out one, and allowed five runs.

The top of the first saw Vanoss Wolverines take an early lead, 1-0.

The Panthers answered Vanoss Wolverines' top inning with one run of their own in the first. The Panthers scored on a fielder's choice.

Vanoss Wolverines scored one run in the second inning, and then followed it up with one more in the sixth. In the second, Vanoss Wolverines scored on a sacrifice fly by Tharp, plating Dansby.

The Panthers tallied two runs in each of the third, fifth and sixth. In the third, the Panthers scored on a walk by Kane Martin, scoring Cody Williams.

Vanoss Wolverines pushed across four runs in both the fifth inning and the seventh. In the fifth, Vanoss Wolverines scored on a groundout by Mullinik, bringing home Phillips.

After a quick strike from Vanoss Wolverines, the Panthers responded with two runs in the sixth. The Panthers scored on an RBI single by Collin Altman and a sacrifice fly by Dylan Hargus.

Vanoss Wolverines never trailed after scoring four runs in the seventh on a two-run double by Lancaster and a two-run error.

The Panthers jump on the Union City Tigers early and coast to 9-1 win

The Panthers jumped out to an early lead on the Union City Tigers and captured a 9-1 victory on Friday.

With six runs in the first three innings, the Panthers left no doubt about the eventual outcome.

A walk by Kane Martin and a passed ball during the first inning and an RBI single by Cody Williams, a passed ball, and a groundout by Martin in the second inning helped the Panthers put some runs on the board early.

Dylan Verser racked up two RBIs on two hits for the Panthers. He singled in the first inning and homered in the fourth inning.

Stanton James put together a nice outing. James gave up just one hit, allowed no earned runs, walked one and struck out four during his five innings of work.

Michalicki ended up on the wrong side of the pitching decision, charged with the loss. He allowed nine runs in 4 2/3 innings, walked three and struck out two.

It didn't take long for the Panthers to respond as they scored one run of their own in the fifth. The Panthers scored on a passed ball.

The Panthers make the most of 4 hits in 5-4 victory over Vanoss Wolverines

The Panthers and Vanoss Wolverines both threatened with rallies, but it was the Panthers that eventually took advantage of them in a 5-4 win.

Vanoss Wolverines had 10 hits compared with the Panthers' four, but Vanoss Wolverines stranded 13 runners on base.

Hayden Savage got on base three times in the game for the Panthers. He scored one run and had one RBI. He singled in the third and sixth innings.

Nathan Ratcliff got the win for the Panthers. He allowed four runs over eight innings. Ratcliff struck out four, walked one and gave up 10 hits.

Mullinik was the game's losing pitcher. He lasted just 1 1/3 innings, walked one, struck out two, and allowed one run.

Vanoss Wolverines jumped out to an early 3-0 lead in the top of the first. Vanoss Wolverines got things going when Tharp singled. An error then moved Tharp from first to third. The scoreboard lit up again for Vanoss Wolverines when Lancaster scored on an RBI double by Mccalley and Mccalley scored on an error.

The Panthers scored one run in the third inning, and then followed it up with one more in the eighth. In the third, the Panthers scored on an error, plating Savage.

The Panthers muster 6 hits, drop 11-4 contest to Vanoss Wolverines

Despite a big day at the dish from Dylan Hargus, who finished 2-2, the Panthers lost 11-4 to Vanoss Wolverines on Saturday.

The Panthers converted a triple play in the sixth inning.

Mccalley got the win for Vanoss Wolverines. He allowed two runs over 5 2/3 innings. Mccalley struck out six, walked three and gave up five hits.

Tharp, Phillips and Lamb helped lead Vanoss Wolverines. They combined for eight hits and six RBIs.

Cody Williams ended up on the wrong side of the pitching decision, charged with the loss. He allowed seven runs in 3 2/3 innings, walked one and struck out one.

The bottom of the first saw the Panthers take an early lead, 2-0. The Panthers got things going when Williams singled. A stolen base then moved Williams from first to second. The Panthers pushed more runs across when Verser scored on a groundout by Dylan Hargus.

The game's last lead went to Vanoss Wolverines thanks to a fourth inning rally that saw seven runs cross the plate on a two-run double by Tharp, two errors, and three singles.

The Panthers matched their one-run fourth inning with one more in the sixth. In the fourth, the Panthers scored on a sacrifice fly by Dylan Verser, scoring Hayden Savage.

An RBI single by Dylan Hargus fueled the Panthers' comeback. But, Mccalley got Caden Bartlett to strike out to end the inning.
